

KENYATTA UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2014/2015

DIGITAL SCHOOL OF VIRTUAL AND OPEN LEARNING

SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF EDUCATION

AHT 102: INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL SCIENCE

DATE: TUESDAY, 28TH APRIL 2015

MICHAEL AWITI OTONDE

TIME: 2.00 P.M. – 4.00 P.M.

INSTRUCTIONS: ANSWER QUESTION ONE AND ANY OTHER TWO

- 1.a) “A state is a legal political concept while a nation is a cultural physical concept”.
Discuss. MICHAEL AWITI OTONDE (10 marks)
- b) Identify and discuss the challenges that undermine the democratization process in Kenya.
(10 marks)
- c) Examine the elements that constitute a state and demonstrate how a state is an arena of politics. MICHAEL AWITI OTONDE (10 marks)
2. “Political Science is an art and a science”. Discuss. (20 marks)
- 3.a) “Power is raw while authority legitimate”. With illustrative examples, authenticate this statement. (10 marks)
- b) Examine the various ways through which a political regime can boost or loose its legitimacy. MICHAEL AWITI OTONDE (10 marks)
4. Discuss the major assumptions of realists and show how they are applicable in our understanding the nature of international relations in the contemporary world.(20 marks)
5. With the use of suitable examples to illustrate your answer, distinguish between monarch, dictatorship and democratic forms of government. (20 marks)
6. Discuss ethnicity, gender and class as challenges to governance in Africa today.
(20 marks)

MICHAEL AWITI OTONDE
